

Job Description:

Social Worker (Lira)

Redeem's mission is to protect widows and orphans from violent abuse and exploitation by:

- Awakening the world to the need to defend the orphan and the widow in the twenty-first century;
- Assembling the resources needed to protect the world's most vulnerable widows and orphans;
- Assisting law enforcement in real cases that restore victims and restrain their abusers; and
- Amplifying law enforcement protection through community engagement and capacity building.

We are currently implementing a program in Uganda to protect widows and orphans from the devastation of predatory eviction with plans to expand our defense of the vulnerable into other countries in the future.

As a Redeem Social Worker, you will support and restore victims of predatory eviction as they navigate the criminal, civil and administrative justice systems and enhance the capacities of our law enforcement partners from the Justice Law and Order Sector ("JLOS") while contributing to Redeem's culture of Christian excellence. Specific responsibilities include:

Case work

- Partnering with other members of the casework team in developing Redeem's overall intervention strategy and developing trauma-informed intervention strategies in individual cases;
- Assessing client needs and devising intervention plans to ensure their restoration and flourishing;
- Monitoring and evaluating client progress against the intervention plan throughout the engagement;
- Providing Redeem clients with rehabilitative services directly or through identified Redeem partners;
- Responding to crisis situations and emergencies impacting Redeem clients during the engagement;
- Mapping and establishing support networks to meet the identified needs of Redeem clients;
- Providing Redeem Attorneys with feedback and information relevant to client representation;
- Assisting Redeem Attorneys in preparing clients for participation in legal proceedings;
- Providing counseling and support for Redeem clients involved in legal proceedings;
- Recording and reporting casework data in Redeem's data and case management systems.

Capacity Building

- Developing strong working relationships with probation officers and other social service providers;
- Identifying lessons learned and opportunities for improvement from Redeem's casework;
- Participating in Gender Coordination Cluster meetings or in other similar JLOS coordinating bodies;
- Providing direct casework support to police officers and state prosecutors in Redeem cases;
- Mentoring and advising probation officers in cases involving Redeem clients or Redeem's work;
- Supporting police officers and prosecutors in providing trauma-informed services to victims;
- Developing and facilitating trainings and equipping projects that will improve interventions;
- Advocating on behalf of Redeem and its partners with JLOS and other relevant governing bodies.

Miscellaneous

- Communicating with donors, supporters, media and other outside parties about Redeem's work;
- Contributing to the review and design of organizational systems, guidelines and policies;
- Participating in Redeem's professional development and spiritual formation activities;
- Supporting other teams within Redeem in the achievement of their objectives;
- Keep and maintain clients' data on paper and electronic management systems. and
- Completing other duties as assigned.
