

Job Description:

Social Worker (Tororo)

Redeem's mission is to protect widows and orphans from violent abuse and exploitation by:

- Awakening the world to the need to defend the orphan and the widow in the twenty-first century;
- Assembling the resources needed to protect the world's most vulnerable widows and orphans;
- Assisting law enforcement in real cases that restore victims and restrain their abusers; and
- Amplifying law enforcement protection through community engagement and capacity building.

We are currently implementing a program in Uganda to protect widows and orphans from the devastation of predatory eviction with plans to expand our defense of the vulnerable into other countries in the future.

As a Redeem Social Worker, you will support and restore victims of property grabbing as they navigate the criminal, civil, and administrative justice systems, while building the capacities of our law enforcement partners from the Justice Law and Order Sector ("JLOS") and contributing to Redeem's culture of Christian excellence. Specific responsibilities include:

Case work

- Partnering with other members of the casework team in developing Redeem's overall intervention strategy and developing trauma-informed intervention strategies in individual cases;
- Assessing client needs and devising rehabilitation plans to ensure their restoration and flourishing;
- Monitoring and evaluating client progress against the rehabilitation plan throughout the engagement;
- Providing Redeem clients with rehabilitative services directly or through identified Redeem partners;
- Responding to crisis situations and emergencies impacting Redeem clients during the engagement;
- Mapping and establishing support networks to meet the identified needs of Redeem clients;
- Providing Redeem Attorneys with feedback and information relevant to client representation;
- Assisting Redeem Attorneys in preparing clients for participation in legal proceedings;
- Providing counseling and support for Redeem clients involved in legal proceedings; and
- Recording and reporting casework data in Redeem's data and case management systems.

Capacity Building

- Developing strong working relationships with probation officers and other social service providers;
- Identifying lessons learned and opportunities for improvement from Redeem's casework;
- Participating in Gender Coordination Cluster meetings or in other similar JLOS coordinating bodies;
- Providing direct casework support to police officers and state prosecutors in Redeem cases;
- Mentoring and advising probation officers in cases involving Redeem clients or Redeem's work;
- Supporting police officers and prosecutors in providing trauma-informed services to victims;
- Developing and facilitating trainings and equipping projects that will improve interventions; and
- Advocating on behalf of Redeem and its partners with JLOS and other relevant governing bodies.

Miscellaneous

- Communicating with donors, supporters, media and other outside parties about Redeem's work;
- Contributing to the review and design of organizational systems, guidelines and policies;
- Participating in Redeem's professional development and spiritual formation activities;
- Supporting other teams within Redeem in the achievement of their objectives;
- Performing clerical duties (photocopying, filing, posting, errands, etc.) as needed, and
- Completing other duties as assigned.

The Social Worker will report to Tororo Team Lead and will be based in Tororo, working primarily in Tororo sub-region with occasional travel to Kampala and other districts in which Redeem operates.

Recruiting Profile:

Social Worker

Redeem strives to build a culture of Christian excellence that reflects the following four core values:

We love each other well;
We don't make easy things hard;
We measure by results; and
We are joyful in our work.

Redeem is looking for a highly skilled and responsible individual who will reflect these values while supporting the representation of individual victims of violence in the criminal, civil and administrative justice systems and enhancing the capacities of our law enforcement partners from JLOS. Specific attributes include:

Experience

Required: A Degree in social work, psychology, counseling or related field;
Required: Five or more years experience in social work, psychology or counseling;
Required: Experience in working with HIV positive, indigent and otherwise vulnerable clients;
Preferred: Experience in partnering with probation officers or other social service providers; and
Preferred: Graduate studies or additional certifications in related fields

Skills

Required: Fluency in English and Lunyole with excellent written and oral communication in both; fluency of Japadhola, Ateso and Kiswahili will be of added advantage.
Required: Computer literacy with strong capacity in word processing, email and other systems;
Required: Familiarity with trauma-informed care in the context of serving survivors of violence;
Preferred: Understanding of Google business suite and digital project management tools; and Preferred: Public speaking and or teaching skills.

Attributes:

Required: Mature Christian faith;
Required: High degree of personal and professional integrity and trustworthiness;
Required: Strong teamwork, interpersonal skills and ability to work on a multidisciplinary team;
Required: Excellent independent professional judgement and ethical decision-making;
Required: Innovative and creative problem solving in the face of complex nuanced issues;
Required: Persistence and tenacity in the face of difficult problems or challenges;
Required: Commitment to meet deadlines and achieve results in fast-paced environment; and
Required: Love-motivated service orientation toward clients, colleagues, partners and adversaries.

Interested applicants should click here to fill out the form by 8th August, 2025.